THE GARAGE DOOR DEPOT™ FRANCHISE LAUNCHED IN WESTERN CANADA

Canadian Access & Door Systems Inc., a 100% Canadian owned and operated business, is pleased to announce it has launched The Garage Door Depot™ franchise system in Western Canada.

The Garage Door Depot™, formed in 2007, is poised to deliver this business opportunity to selected markets and expand the concept of a leading garage door sales and service company. Entrepreneurs, as franchisees, will have the power to shape their individual businesses while, at the same time, have the full support of the management team at head office, located in Coquitlam, BC.

Dean Carman, President and CEO, says, "Expanding into other markets outside the Lower Mainland has always been the aim of our company. The vision of having a Garage Door Depot franchise partner in hundreds of locations throughout North America is the goal."

Dennis Keeling, VP Sales and Service, concurs, noting, "The Garage Door Depot™ has separated itself from the typical independent door company and delivers much more to its customer. We believe the customer experience begins with the first call or the first visit to our website."

The Garage Door Depot™ franchises will be located throughout Canada and the approval process for potential candidates has begun. "Our five-year plan will consist of establishing more than 39 franchises in the Canadian market," said Patrick Rutten, Vice President, Franchise.

Training facilities for The Garage Door Depot™ (www.garagedoordepot.ca) franchisees will be based in Coquitlam, BC. There, franchisees will gain practical help and guidance as they establish their new businesses.
